

The conference is organised in the framework of the Jean
Monnet Network
"Applied European Contemporary History"

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

The PUBLIC in Public and Applied History

The Depot History Centre
Wrocław
6-7 March 2019

Day I

12:00 Registration

12:30–13:30 Lunch

13:30–14:00 Opening

Joanna Wojdon

Dennis Dierks

14:00–16:00 The Public in History Museums

Irmgard Zündorf (Centre for Contemporary History Potsdam)

Between Participation and Competition:
The Role of the Public in Museums

Clara Mansfeld (Europäisches Kolleg Jena)
What the Public Wants or What the Public
Needs? The "Museum for all" in 1970s
West Germany

Marta Kopiniak (University of Wrocław)
Students as the Public of History Museums

16:00–16:30 Coffee Break

16:30–17:30 Keynote Lecture

Jerome de Groot (Manchester University)
Public in Public History

18:30 Dinner

Restaurant Stary Młyn

Address: Rynek 26

Day II

9:00–10:00 Keynote Lecture

Cord Arendes (Heidelberg University)

Between Desire and Reality:
The Public in Public History

10:00–10:30 Coffee Break

10:30–12:30 Understanding the Public in Historical Culture

Georgi Verbeeck (Maastricht University)

Towards a Culture of Apologies:
Dealing with History between the Personal and the Public Sphere

Ljubinka Petrovic-Ziemer (Academy for Conflict Transformation, Cologne)
Germany 1945: The Fulminant Unmaking and Remaking of the Public

Alexander Khodnev (Yaroslavl State University)
Memory, Cultural Essentialism and Public History in Russia

12:30–13:30 Lunch

13:30–15:30 Visiting Zajezdnia (Depot)
History Centre

15:30–17:30 The Public in Historical Learning
Processes

Georg Marschnig (University of Graz)
Historical Learning in the Park: The "Grazer Stadtpark" as a Sphere of Public Memory and an Extra-Curricular Learning Site

Liat Steir-Livny (Sapir Academic College)
History "from below" by the Public:
"Remembrance in the Living Room" –
Grassroots Gatherings Creating New Forms of Holocaust Commemoration in Israel

Joanna Wojdon (University of Wrocław)
The Youngest Public:
Schoolchildren in History Museums

17:30–18:00 Coffee Break

18:00–19:00 End Note

David Dean (Carleton University)
Publics and Public History:
Moving Beyond Representation

19:30 Dinner

Restaurant Konspira

Address: Plac Solny 11